

6516206117.txt

I switched over to satellite radio because I hated listening to normal radio. Normal radio is nothing but corporate garbage, from the music to the disc jockeys to the non stop advertisements. Don't let this disgusting form of corporate bullying stop something beautiful like XM.LET XM GROW! Maybe it will improve the quality of regular radio, making all broadcasting better in the end.